

Ho! Ye Housekeepers!

Beard's Great September Sale of Household Goods.

On Next Monday Morning at Seven o'clock we will .....Inaugurate an.....

Unprecedented Sale.

Carpets, Mattings, Linoleums, Rugs, Portiers, Draperies, Lace Curtains, Mosquito Canopies, Shades, Screens, Poles, Hassocks, Hammocks, Baskets, Brooms, Door Mats, Dusters, Carpet Sweepers, Comforts, Sheets, Table Linens, Napkins, Etc.

This Sale Will Continue Until September the 15th.

OF COURSE THE CHOICEST THINGS GO FIRST. "A WORD TO THE WISE IS SUFFICIENT."

"THE LEADER."

W. C. BEARD,

"THE LEADER."

AROUND THE CITY

Mr. D. L. Bailey is out again, after a week's illness.

Mr. W. L. Love, of Cherokee, was in the city Friday greeting his friends.

Mr. Jones L. Williams, of Caledonia spent Friday in Columbus with relatives.

Mr. Bart Lawrence, of Caledonia, was in the city last Friday mingling with friends.

Mr. Jas Newby returned the early part of the past week from French Lick Springs, Ind.

Mr. Chas. Morris, of the Woodlawn neighborhood, spent last Friday in the city on business.

Mr. Joe Mehaffey has returned from Cedar Bluff, where he spent some time the past week on business.

Mrs. Lide and her daughter, Miss Annie, are expected home from the Carolinas about the 1st of the next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Crumbaugh and children return home to-day after a month spent with relatives in Paducah, Kentucky.

Prof. B. G. Hull, a well known educator of the eastern section of the county, was in the city last Friday on business.

Mr. Robt Linier leaves this week for Jackson, La., where he goes to accept a position in a music house in that place.

Mrs. T. A. Eggleston Jr., and niece are at home from a visit to relatives in Texas. Mrs. Eggleston returned on Wednesday last.

Mr. Preston Gunter's friends are pleased to see him home from Iuka, Miss., and to note the improvement in his health.

Miss John Ellen Walker, the attractive daughter of Mr. J. L. Walker, has been visiting friends in the Magic City for the past week.

Mr. J. L. Craddock, of this paper spent several days of the past week in St. Louis, combining pleasure with a business trip.

The many friends of Mrs. Annie Bell Ellis, of New Hope neighborhood, will regret to learn that she has been very ill for several days.

Mr. D. D. Stevenson Jr. left the past week for Bell Buckle, Tenn., where he goes to enter Webb's School for the ensuing session.

Today is general sanitary day in Meridian. The citizens of that place are going to burn sulphur in their homes, and otherwise make war on the mosquito.

We regret to note that while the wife of Mr. Will McCullough of Dow neighborhood is improving after a siege of typhoid fever, two of his children are very sick.

Mr. R. E. Leigh, the enterprising proprietor of the Woman's Store, leaves the latter part of the week for New York City, where he will purchase his fall and winter stock.

Little Miss Ida Dashiell entertained a number of friends at her home on Main Street last Friday afternoon. Despite the bad weather the little folks enjoyed the occasion very much.

Mrs. D. P. Davis is welcomed home from Macon, Miss., where she was called by the illness of Mrs. W. F. Patty. The latter's friends in Columbus will be gratified to know that she is convalescent.

Miss Rose Strauss, of Montgomery, Ala., passed through Columbus last Wednesday en route home after a pleasant visit to the West. While here she was the guest of Mrs. Leopold Loeb at the Gilmer.

Mr. Chas. Jones, the popular railroad engineer, has purchased a two hundred and thirty acre farm in the Steens neighborhood. It is Mr. Jones' intention to improve his recent purchase and move to the country.

Hon. J. T. Gunter is home from Iuka, Miss., where he spent several days at the springs at that place. Mr. Gunter was very much improved by this trip, a fact all of his friends will be gratified to learn.

Mrs. A. R. Davis after a delightful visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gunter, left last week for Rome, Ga., where she will spend some time with relatives. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Carine Gunter.

The friends of Mr. W. H. Taylor in Columbus will regret very much to learn that his wife and daughter have been victims of malarial fever since their stay in the mountains of Tennessee, where they have been for several weeks past.

Rev. H. M. Long, formerly pastor of the Caledonia group of churches in this county, has resigned his position at Newport, Arkansas, and returns to assume charge of the church at Newton, Alabama. Mr. Long's friends in this section are glad to know that his labors will be closer home.

THE DISPATCH regrets to chronicle the death of Mrs. Bettie C. Bostick, which recently occurred at the home of her son, Mr. H. P. Bostick, in Tomales, Cal. Mrs. Bostick was a sister of Mr. Wm. Topp and Mrs. A. L. Witherspoon, of this city, and was well known to many of our older citizens.

Dr. John Oliver, secretary of the Mississippi and West Alabama Fair Association, requests THE DISPATCH to state that any person who wishes a catalogue of the forthcoming fair can secure one by applying to him. Everything is working along nicely for the fall exhibition and a great fair is promised.

Mrs. Mary B. Leech's friends are glad to know that she was able to be brought to her home in this city Thursday night, after having been critically ill in West Point for several weeks. She will be pleasantly domiciled with her sisters, the Misses Brown, in the Masonic Building.

Rev. G. O. Hubbert, the popular pastor of the Cumberland group of churches in the Caledonia section, has sold his pretty cottage home in the Woodlawn neighborhood and about the 1st of the new year will move to Gulfport, Miss. to make that place his home. Mr. A. H. Pegues was the purchaser of his farm in the Woodlawn neighborhood.

Mr. James Cox, of Tibbee, has purchased from Mr. Warren M. Cox the pretty vacant lot on the J. O. Banks square in Southwest Columbus and will soon begin the erection thereon of a handsome cottage. Mr. Cox has disposed of his plantation in the Tibbee section and will move to Columbus with his family to make this city his future home.

Prof. John D. Sims, of Nashville, Tenn., was in the city last week, and it is understood that the purpose of his visit was to look in to the advantages of Columbus as a suitable location for a high school. During his stay here he was extended quite a number of courtesies by the prominent people, and expressed himself as being delighted with Columbus, though he has not definitely decided to locate here.

Store House For Rent.

A valuable suburban store adjoining one of the largest of Columbus manufacturing plants. A fine opening for a suburban business. Rent $12.00 a month. For further information apply to P. W. MAER.

Sale of Delinquent Lease Tax Property.

THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI,
COUNTY OF LOWNDES.

Under and by virtue of an order of the Mayor and City Council of the City of Columbus, made and entered on the 1st day of August, 1905, ordering a release of the leasehold property hereinafter described, the same having been forfeited and said Mayor and City Council having re-entered and taken possession of same, I, E. S. Donnell, City Marshal and Collector of Leases for said City of Columbus, of all leasehold property in said city, will, on Monday the 5th day of September, 1905, at the front door of the City Hall, within the hours prescribed by law for the sale of lots or lands, to the highest bidder for cash, release the following described property, in said City of Columbus, for the unexpired term of ninety-nine years from the first day of August, 1821:

| NAME. | DESCRIPTION. |
|--|---|
| Roberts | Part lot 2 square 5 north of Main street. |
| T. J. Cline | Fraction part 8 1/4 square 37 north of Main street. |
| Mrs. J. E. Leech | E 1/4 ne 1/4 square 74 north of Main street. |
| Edmund Wallace | Lot 1 square 117 north of Main street. |
| Thad James | Fraction square 27 north of Main street. |
| | SOUTH OF MAIN STREET. |
| Mrs. A. J. McDowell | N part w 1/4 of w 1/4 square 23. |
| A. J. Burrage | W 1/4 w 1-3 n 1/4 square 24. |
| E. S. DONNELL, City Marshal and Collector of Leases. | |
| Columbus, Miss., August 12, 1905.—3w. | |

J. D. HAYWARD, JR. W. B. HARRIS J. B. HARRIS

Main Office, Columbus, Miss.

Branch Offices, Macon, Miss., and Starkville, Miss.

HAYWARD, HARRIS & COMPANY,

Cotton, Stocks, Bonds, Grain, Provision and Coffee

Members

New Orleans Cotton Exchange,
New Orleans Future Brokers Association,
New Orleans Board of Trade,
New York Cotton Exchange,
New York Coffee Exchange,
Chicago Board of Trade,
Associate Members,
Liverpool Cotton Association.

Correspondents

Hayward, Vlek & Clark, New Orleans
J. S. Bache & Co., New York
Bartlett, Frazier & Carrington, Chicago.

PRIVATE DIRECT WIRES
TO NEW ORLEANS, NEW YORK AND CHICAGO.

WE RESPECTFULLY SOLICIT YOUR BUSINESS IN OUR LINE.

SEND US YOUR FLAT WORK

That is your Sheets, Towels, Napkins, Table Cloths, Bolster and Pillow Cases. We do this work at a cent a piece, less than your wash woman charges you. All we require is that you send us not less than 25 pieces, and that all such work be tied in bundles separate from your other Laundry.

....TELEPHONE US AND WAGON WILL CALL....

CITY STEAM LAUNDRY

SAUNDERS BRADFORD, Prop.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE DISPATCH.